CHURCH GROUP ENGAGED INTERDENOMINATIONAL STUDY AND CITY SURVEY

Four-Day Session in Progress at Episcopal Parish House
—Studying and Discussing a Text Book the Subject
Of 'The American City and Its Church.'

The women of the Bay are making an intensive study of our community as related to the Church. The different missionary societies of the churches are having an interdenominational study and survey, meeting in the mornings at the Episcopal Parish House at 9:00 o'clock, for four consecutive days, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

The sessions have been well attended and very worthwhile. Tuesday morning the study course began, with Mrs. T. T. Robin in charge of the outlined program. Rev. A. J. Boyles opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Frank Levy was the speaker for Tuesday morning. She gave an insight into the text book, "The American City and Its Church." With special reference to "The Community." She used as her pattern city, New Orleans, of which she is a citizen, showing whereby our Bay City is similar in institutional life—the family, the church, the school, the political parties and other organizations and associations, with attention given to the habits, customs, sentiments and attitudes which come to be incorporated in a "city man."

Wednesday morning, the session was in charge of Mrs. Faery R. Boyd, Mrs. C. L. Horton opening with prayer and Rev. Warwick Aiken, reading the scripture. Mrs. Carl Marshall gave a talk on "Juvenile Delinquency" and the Recreational Problem. Mrs. Boyd gave a discussion concerning Our People, Our Homes and Family Life.

The Thursday morning session was led by Mrs. C. C. McDonald, giving a discussion of Our Problems, assisted by Mesdames Jos. R. Schaff, Leo Seal, F. J. Nelson, A. C. Exnicios, E. Mogabgab, A. J. Boyles and J. E. McCoy.

The Friday morning session is to be led by Mrs. W. S. Speer, giving as her subject, The Church and the Community. Other speakers for the session are civic workers, representing social welfare organizations of our community: John A. Bozeman, J. E. Gray, Mrs. A. P. Smith, Miss Mae Edwards, and others.

A Yardsick For My Community, has been distributed to all present, with a view of ascertaining our needs through all information available, and arousing a desire to cooperate with other interested persons or organizations along with the genius of the church, to give meaning and purpose to human lives, that they may be able to live life in its fullest.

PROJECT IN MAKING FOR GARDEN TOURS AND SPRING PAGEANT

Bay St. Louis Garden Club
Representatives Attend
Meeting at Gulfport
Tuesday.

Bay St. Louis Garden Club, of which Mrs. George R. Rea is the active president, was represented at Gulfport Tuesday evening at a meeting held in Gulfport in the interest of having the Gulf Coast represented at the Spring Pageant and Garden Tours to be held on the Coast March 17, 18, 19.

This particular meeting was that of hotel owners and operators who are assisting in the project. The sum of $1500 for publicity purposes and exploitation must be raised and the amount to be realized is $1500. Bay St. Louis' quota is $150.

Attending this meeting of members of Chamber of Commerce and Garden Clubs from Bay St. Louis were Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rea, Mrs. Leo W. Seal and Mrs. J. Roland Weston. They report an enthusiastic meeting and one that will bring results.

Our Gulf Coast civic votaries have gone to work in earnest and the proposed Garden Tours and three-day historical pageant, in connection with the Natchez Pilgrimage should attract many thousands of visitor from all sections of the country.

The hotels have joined in the project and the matter of advertising is receiving the co-ordinated interest of the Mississippi Advertising Commission with Commissioner Ed Lipscomb initiating one of the biggest national advertising campaigns yet put on.

FLEA-FLY CLASSIC SUNDAY

Famous Juvenile Gridiron
Eleven to Play Annual
Game at Stanislaus
Stadium.

The football interest is centered right now on the major football game of the year for the small boys. The long anticipated Flea-Fly game is right around the corner—Sunday, November 20. Another of the annual classics is about to give occasion for the usual show of reverses, passes, spins and bucks that enliven this event.

The teams were chosen last Friday and practice got under way immediately. In spite of the short time since the beginning of practice the teams are already taking the appearance of miniature Notre Dame.

Due to the secrecy maintained concerning practice sessions it is rather difficult to gather any definite news on either team. When you ask a Flea or a Fly, "Who's going to win?" all you get is a knowing smile. However, it is rumored that the Fleas will depend mainly on steamroller tactics to crush their opponents while the Flies will take to the air and go over the enemies' heads. The fighting spirit is up so there is bound to be something happen.

The size of the boys is very regular and is limited to the smaller boys alone this year. For the past several years there were big and little Fleas and Flies but this appearing to detract from the original purpose of the game, it was deemed better to have one size and those the actual flea size.

Tickets have been on sale and according to the number sold the interest is as great as ever. We wouldn't advise any of the regular attendants at these games to miss this one for any reason whatsoever.

ROCKACHAWS ARE VICTORIOUS OVER FAMOUS PANTHERS

Following a big parade and demonstration over the principal streets of the city Friday night, Pascagoula's famous Panther Eleven were defeated by St. Stanislaus undefeated Rockachaws by a score of 26-6, after a spirited and worthwhile game.

Playing a tie game with Piquette, the local college team, has won every encounter on the gridiron this season and Coach "Slick" Morton and his famous players are correspondingly happy. This places in line for the New Orleans Toy Bowl game at Christmas time. And the Rocks most likely will also win this game.

St. Stanislaus team has had a successful season from every angle and there has been enough glory to go all around, credit to all for the splendid team work and individual playing. The public, naturally, is enthusiastic over the results and proud of the team and are looking for a continuance of this record.

The attendance last Friday night, as on previous occasions, was noteworthy and the Pep squad was on the job 100 per cent.

NOVEMBER 30TH DATE SET FOR S. S. C. HARVEST BALL

First Social Event of Season
For St. Stanislaus
College.

The highlight of the social season at St. Stanislaus has been announced for Wednesday, November 30. The Harvest Ball, which is but three years old, and will now complete its fourth year has become an annual affair to the students, since it is really one of the most interesting and enjoyable affairs of the year.

It is the custom that every year since the Harvest Ball came into being, a king and queen should reign supreme. The monarchs are not chosen, but elected by the student body, and local residents who cooperate to make this event a successful one. The method to decide for the king is by selling votes. The candidate who obtains the largest amount of votes becomes king, and he, in turn, picks the queen.

The gymnasium, where the ball is going to be held, will be decorated by the members of the Senior Class. The colors that will be used for decorating purposes have not been decided, but it is expected that it will be something elaborate and tastefully arranged so as to furnish a pleasing sight and a sort of carnival air about the place. The Seniors showed their good taste in decorating the gymnasium last year when they adorned the hall for the Junior-Senior Prom.

The king will be selected by popular vote of the student body and friends of the college. This is done by the purchase of shares in the ten-dollar prize. The king will have the privilege of choosing his own queen. The court will be made up of dukes and maids. The dukes must dispose of three books of votes to be eligible for the court. Each may choose his maid.

BUILDING NEW AUTO COURT

First Unit of Four Cottages
In Course of Completion
On New Highway
Shortcut.

Beginning with a unit of four cottages and planning to continue to build at least ten, for the present, Claud Monti has in the building an attractive and up-to-date tourist court on the newest highway shortcut adjacent to Bay St. Louis.

Each cottage is equipped with electric lights (rural electrification project service) and will contain a full-fledged bathroom, with shower. Adjoining a garage will take care of the car and the owner can go from the room to the auto without going outside. It is noted each room is equipped with modern beds and mattresses, the best for the public not being too much.

Mr. Monti expresses the opinion that such a court will service many of the traveling public on the OSI and will be a means of inviting people to stop over.

Mr. Thos. F. Monti, Sr., will be in active charge of the court and will cater to the public wants. The court is located on the afternoon shady side of the highway, and is near the terminus of Carroll and de Montluzin avenues.

TIME TO PROCURE PERMITS

County Opens Branch Office to Accommodate
Public—Thos. Monti,
Jr., Clerk.

Every driver of an automobile in Mississippi must have a license, after an examination and inspection of the car to be driven.

An office for the issuance of such permits has been opened in the Monti Garage building, corner intersection of Hancock street and railroad right of way, and is in charge of Thos. F. Monti, Jr.

Applicant must fill a questionnaire and pay a fee of 25 cents. Each member in a family driving the one car must have a separate permit. Each must fill in the questionnaire and pay the fee. Comparatively speaking, it takes quite a bit of time to be served applicants standing in line and waiting for their turn, at various times of the day.

This matter should be attended to at once. One cannot drive without a permit. This is part of the safety program.

FARM BUREAU PROGRAM

To Be Discussed in Hancock County Under Supervision Agent John A. Bozeman.

J. A. Bozeman, Hancock county agent, wishes to call to the attention of all farmers in the county a series of five meetings to be held in different communities for the purpose of discussing the 1938 Farm Bureau Program and the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program.

The county agent will be assisted in these meetings by the county administrative assistant and the vocational agricultural teacher at Kiln and Sellers schools. There are quite a number of farmers in the county who can still earn additional payments under the 1938 program for carrying out soil building practices and this will be discussed at the meetings.

Mr. Bozeman, states that the teachers have been requested to announce these meetings through their respective schools as an added incentive of getting the farmers to attend the meetings. The farm women are urged to attend the meetings. Realizing that a large number of the farmers in the county are employed by WPA, making it difficult for them to attend meetings at such times during the week, a special effort has been made to arrange one of the meetings most convenient to them. Therefore, the farmers are urged to take note of this fact and make every effort possible to attend the meeting scheduled in their community.

The schedule follows:
Lectoon—Friday, November 18th, 7:00 P. M.
Catahoula—Saturday, November 19th, 9:30 A. M.
Dedaux—Saturday, Nov. 19th—1:30 P. M.
Flat Top—Tuesday, November 22nd, 3:00 P. M.
Sellers—Tuesday, November 22, 7:00 P. M.

The meetings will be held in the school buildings except the one at Lectoon which will be held in the Community Park, weather conditions permitting.

Every farmer in the county is urged to attend one of these meetings as the information received will be of immense value in planning your farm program and in improving conditions of the farm people. Please urge your neighbors to attend one of these meetings with you, pleads County Agent Bozeman.

"OUR COUNTRY'S PLAY GROUNDS" SUBJECT OF ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

George R. Rea Contrasts Natural Advantages of Mississippi Gulf Coast Over Florida and California—Garden Club Tours This Spring.

Mr. George R. Rea, who travels over the country as much as any other citizen, perhaps more, was program speaker of Rotary the local business and professional luncheon club, Wednesday at Hotel Reed, contrasting our own Gulf section with others nationally exploited and dwelling on the Natchez Pilgrimage and the forthcoming Mississippi Garden Tours in connection with the pilgrimage next March.

Mr. Geo. R. Rea addressed the Rotary Club on Wednesday on "Our Country's Play Grounds." He contrasted the natural advantages of our Gulf Coast over Florida and California.

"Florida owes a great debt to Flagler who spent millions on hotels and railroads in East Florida for which he received no financial returns," Mr. Rea said. He described the Ponce de Leon Hotel at St. Augustine which cost 5 million dollars about twenty-five years ago and at that time was the world's finest hotel. At Palm Beach a recently constructed fire proof hotel replaced the old frame one "The Breakers," which burned. At Miami there are 400 modern hotels and many new homes have been erected. The race track at Miami is the finest in the world. It surrounds a lake on which are beautiful plumed flamingoes and swans. Tropical flowers of every kind landscape its banks. The night life of amusements of Miami excels that of New York City and the finest stores in the country are to be found at Miami, which are operated from New York. The Flagler railroad to Key West, built over the Coral Keys, was damaged by storm; today the United States government has built a magnificent concrete highway and causeway which cost many millions. The WPA cleaned up old Key West and today it rivals the resorts of the country."

Florida has better climate in winter than California. The Pullman conductor told Mr. Rea that his train brought 600 families from California to spend the winter in Florida.

Continuing Mr. Rea said that "The Mississippi Gulf Coast has been blessed with many natural advantages, but it is incumbent upon our civic organizations and city and county administrations to beautify and to construct places of amusement if we are to rival other states in securing our quota of winter and summer tourists."

"In 1930 the Natchez Garden Club publicized the beautiful gardens there and offered inducements to visitors. Each of the 80 members contributed $1.00 which started the fund. The second year the club borrowed money and sustained a loss. The third year they decided to open their ante-bellum homes and advertise pageants of history. Each year the number of tourists has increased and in 1938 the daily number of visitors were 2000, making a total of 60,000 for the season. Each visitor spent not less than $10.00 each, thus Natchez received in cash from outside sources more than $600,000.00."

"Today the Natchez Tours operate a full time office with a field secretary who is visiting all cities in the United States showing slides and giving lectures.

Coast Garden Clubs

"It is the desire of the Garden Clubs along the Coast to bring these visitors to the Gulf Coast to see our gardens in Waveland, Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Gulfport, Biloxi and Ocean Springs, as well as Bellin-grath's Garden. Pageants of historical interest will be given, as well as other attractions, during March 17, 18, 19, 1939. The hotel owners along the Coast met with the Committee of Coast Towns on Tuesday night at Gulfport and it was decided to raise $1,500.00 for publicity and advertising purposes. Bay St. Louis must raise its quota of $150.00."

Special election held last Saturday, city of Bay St. Louis, to determine whether Bay St. Louis desires natural gas, as proposed by F. P. Joseph, of Louisiana, was held under most favorable auspices.

Of the entire city votes 417 ballots were cast and of this number 15 were cast against the proposition. Leaving 401, for while one ballot was spoiled and not counted.

Election was conducted on the first floor of the City Hall. Election Commissioners were R. N. Blaize, M. E. Toulme, A. E. Theiry, while John A. Egloff and W. J. Watts, Jr., were clerks and Frank Gutierrez peace and returning officer.

The story of the bond proposition has been repeatedly told in these columns, in news and advertising columns.

It is planned to pipe the gas from a point at Nugent, Miss., north of Gulfport, to run back of the latter city, in the vicinity of the cemetery and coming down to Pass Christian. At Henderson Point vicinity pipes will be laid beneath the water, this is according to blue surveys and blue prints.

Sale of bonds, after due preliminary, will be the first requisite for definite action and soon thereafter, it is stated, actual work will begin. It is understood it will not require so long a time to place the mains and to connect with the natural gas fields and source of supply. This will give Bay St. Louis the realization of a long-cherished hope and will augment property values inestimably, it is pointed out.

"OUR COUNTRY'S PLAY GROUNDS" SUBJECT OF ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

The speaker's address was inspiring and of civilian type that was enthusiastically received.

CANTON—NO CITY TAXES.

UNDER the foregoing head the Jackson News carries an interesting story of the city of Canton, Miss., where Charlie Harris, mayor, gets out the weekly newspaper, and who was recently elected over an opponent with a strong personal following. But the mayor-elect won out again as he generally does every election.

Here is Fred Sullen's story of Canton, the city without taxes:

"There are communities in which municipal ownership can be made a success. It all depends on the kind and character of city government, the ability of the men who administer it.

"Our neighboring city of Canton is a splendid example.

"Canton is under the guidance of Mayor-Editor-Con. Charlie Harris, who isn't much to look at from the viewpoint of personal pulchritude. He has never taken a prize in a beauty show. He is neither an Apollon, Adonis or Beau Brummel, but he does seem to know how to run a city government.

"Canton has no municipal tax levy. Her citizens pay only Federal, state and county taxes. "The municipality owns its water and lighting utilities. It gets natural gas supplied from its own natural gas well on the Belhaven College property in this city, carried through a pipe line laid a few years ago.

"Revenues from these utilities are ample to defray all costs of municipal government. Canton even pays Mayor Harris a small salary to keep the city from local taxes. The exemption even includes no levy for interest and principal on outstanding bonds.

"Canton citizens ought to be happy, especially at this season of the year when citizens of other communities are wondering where-the-devil they're going to get the money with which to meet the municipal tax bill."

Bay St. Louis, too, according to results of last Saturday's special election, owning its gas plant, might realize sufficient profit not only to pay off the bonded obligation in time but help to relieve the tax pressure.

THE REV. A. J. BOYLES RETURNS.

RE-ASSIGNMENT of the Rev. A. J. Boyles to the pastorate of the Bay St. Louis First Methodist Church at the Mississippi Conference last week, is noted with more than ordinary interest and pleasure. And with the others of our community and adjacent country we hasten to welcome him back.

The Rev. Boyles is a typical citizen, in addition to a churchman. He has proven himself worthy of the term. Affiliated with every move for the civic interest and for the uplift and forward movement of the community. Mr. Boyles has been found not only in the front rank but an ardent and successful worker. His recent accomplishment aided by his associates, in putting the local Red Cross drive, over the top, far exceeding our quota, stamps him as an indefatigable worker.

Mr. Boyles' return to the First Methodist Church for another year and not his charge but the entire city will benefit in manifold value by his return.

IOWANS TURN EYES TO THE GULF COAST.

NO section in the country is attracting more attention than the Mississippi Gulf Coast. A recent tabulation compiled by the Des Moines Register and Tribune, (Iowa), resolves to the conclusion that unprecedented interest in Mississippi vacations is reported.

The Tribune report, which covers 34 cities and 29 Iowa counties, showed that 30 per cent of all returns gave the Mississippi area as first choice in anticipated vacations during the 1939 winter season.

Ed. Lipscomb of the Mississippi Advertising Commission in reviewing the Des Moines survey says "That nearly one-third of the total number reporting made specific reference to the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Natchez and Vicksburg followed in second and third place."

The Mississippi Gulf Coast should at least entertain 100,000 people every winter from all sections. This is a fair minimum.

THE KING AND QUEEN'S VISIT.

WHEN King George and Queen Elizabeth, of Great Britain, visit the United States next year, it will be the first time that reigning sovereigns of the British Empire have set their feet upon the soil of the former British colonies.

The visit of the royal personages will not be altogether insignificant. It will mark the steady development of the friendship between the two great English-speaking peoples and give royal affirmation, if it be needed, that the feud between the former colonies and the Mother-country has ended.

We feel sure that almost all of the citizens of this country will welcome the visit of the British King and Queen. Neither the purpose nor the effect of their visit will be misinterpreted. They will be received with the same cordial welcome that this country has extended to other visiting members of royal families.

The local merchants are beginning to display Christmas merchandise and we suggest that you look their goods over before deciding to trade out of town.

Thanksgiving.

THANKSGIVING Day, 1938, finds the people of the United States in something of a quandary as many of them are experiencing financial stringencies in the midst of circumstances that are well known and most unusual. As individuals and as a people, we face the future with the knowledge that many serious problems, both national and individual, have not been solved to our satisfaction. The task that lies ahead of us requires hard work, clear thinking and unselfish service.

Thus it may seem to some that Thanksgiving Day, this year, may be one on which pessimists may develop a tendency to gloat, to sneer and wonder at the fortitude of those who return thanks in season and out of season.

Our people, however are not among those who wish to find fault with a Creator in whom they have a cherished faith. They manage to believe that some guiding hand is at the helm of things eternal, and that material matters of the world are not, perhaps, as important to the individual as many might think.

The Sea Coast Echo feels sure that there will be no lack of grateful prayers on the occasion of Thanksgiving Day. Surely, as a people, we have much left to us for which we should retain abundant gratitude. Our lot is so much better than that of many people that it would seem churlish to become lost in the envy of bygone bounty.

Individually, we are sure, our citizens have much to be sincerely appreciative of. None of us are so bad off that we could not be much worse. Few of us have suffered hardships in proportion to our real deserts. All of us are ahead of the game when it comes to earthly blessings.

Why palaver about it? Let us return to the worship of the Great Father of us all, let us render thanks to Him who guides the universe and sets the bounds of the individual's achievements. It is no time to essay judgment upon God; rather let us be humble, realizing our true unworthiness and actual need for additional divine help and guidance as we trend the pathways of our mortal lives.

When people borrow money, they usually mean to pay it back, but excuses are easier to dig up than money.

GOV. WHITE'S HOME AT COLUMBIA.

PRIVATE Secretary John Hancock to Governor White is a keen and close observer and writes a daily column for the Jackson press that is ever replete with interesting notations. Hancock is a newspaper man and is capable of writing in many phases—intelligently and interpretatively.

Here's his report of a visit a few days ago to Gov. and Mrs. White's private premises at Columbia, not so "terribly" far from Bay St. Louis:

"On a trip to Columbia the other day to see the governor about getting some papers signed, I was impressed again with the beauty of his home there. Surely none in the state loves flowers any more than the governor and the First Lady, and both have enough flower beds to satisfy anyone. Some of the japonica bushes were already showing blooms—too far ahead of time, the governor said, he's afraid they won't blossom out after the first of the year like they should. His special pride right now is an azalea bush that was raised in a little hot-house in the back of the place, and transplanted three years ago to a nice sunny spot near the front walk. They measured it last week and it was 12 feet across. Many of the rose bushes are still blooming nicely, and two long rows of little yellow chrysanthemums made a beautiful bank of color—contrasting against the governor's private garden of turnip greens!"

Entering the town of Hondo, Texas, motorists are greeted with this sign: "This is God's country. Don't drive thru it like hell."

A WARNING TO JITTERBUGS.

THE hopping, grinning dances that go with swing music, require as much training and as good physical condition as tennis, basketball, swimming and golf, in the opinion of Dr. Edward A. Ward, of Sagniauw, Michigan, former president of the American Osteopathic Association.

Dr. Ward warns that these dances are not for "lounge lizards." Dancers doing the ultra-modern steps are advised to have their hearts tested. Moreover, if they are not in good physical condition they will pay for their fun with thick ankles, broken, mal-adjusted feet and exhausted nervous systems.

This warning will be worth money to the jitterbugs if they take advantage of it. Boys and girls, as well as men and women, might as well understand that the individual cannot go on emotional riots without paying a physical price. Wild excesses of exercise, regardless of their form, cannot fail to harm the physical well being of the participant.

A DYING MAN'S HEART.

RECENTLY a convicted murderer was put to death in Utah by a firing squad for the murder of a business man.

The condemned man preferred to be shot rather than to be hung, which gave the prison physician an opportunity to make an electrical record of the heart beats of the man as he waited for the fatal shot.

The prisoner, asked to permit the cardiograph to record his heart beats as the bullets crashed into his body, agreed readily although expressing regret that he would not be able to see this "picture."

The record was made. It showed that the man's heart beat jumped from a normal 72 to 180 during the preliminaries to the execution. It stopped 15.8 seconds after the fatal bullet was fired. Death came in two and a half minutes.

The value of the record, according to the physician is that it shows the effect of fear upon the heart.

Let's everyone bear in mind the fact that the way to make our community a more beautiful place in which to live is to begin beautifying our own yards.

NO WAY TO GET BACK.

PROF. W. F. Bond, commissioner of the state board of public welfare, has issued the following:

Letters are being received from those persons who have recently been dropped from the WPA payroll, requesting that we help them get reinstated. This is a matter over which we have no control. As I understand it, orders came from Federal headquarters for number employed on WPA to be reduced and of course, it had to be done by the WPA authorities. Also I understand there are more than 20,000 people already certified and in every way qualified for employment on the WPA work relief program but Federal funds are not sufficient to give them employment. This would indicate that there are already more people certified for the work relief program in Mississippi than can hope to get employment at the present time.

Prof. Bond is not alone in receiving appeals from persons whose names are no longer on the WPA rolls.

All persons who have influence with WPA authorities, are besieged with requests to help them get reinstated. It isn't worth trying.

WPA rolls have been reduced under orders from Washington,

A VICTORY FOR THE CONSERVATIVES.

(West Point Leader)

EDITOR Birney Lines, of the Columbus Commercial Dispatch, doesn't consider the recent election as a victory for the Republican party. On the contrary, he says:

It was a victory for conservatism and sanity in the administration of the national government.

The people are sick and tired of waste, extravagance and the continued piling up of the public debt.

They want to get back to sanity and soundness in government.

It was a victory for conservatism, sound government, and the elimination of a lot of the crack-pot experiments of the past few years.

It is a pity that President Roosevelt, who is admittedly a great humanitarian, with the best of intentions, cannot see that further experimentation is a serious handicap to economic recovery, and that return to sound and conservative principles is the only hope for the country.

and the plan of elimination was so formed as to cause the smallest possible distress among the needy.

Those who have been lopped off are simply in hard luck and will have to make the best of it.

FRED AND GINGER ROMANCE & DANCE AGAIN IN 'CAREFREE'

Bringing the world-famous team of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers together once more, RKO Radio's "Carefree" appearing Sunday and Monday, at the A. & G. Theater, presents a glittering, joyous and song-studded film romance embellished with Irving Berlin melodies starting dance routines and a deftly handled story.

Because Ginger keeps breaking off her wedding date with Ralph Bellamy, the latter asks Astaire, a psychiatrist, to fix up any lurking inhibitions the lady may have on the subject of marriage. The pretty patient complicates matters by falling in love with Fred instead of with Ralph.

The two stars, with cleverly drawn roles to enact as the psychiatrist and the actress, have unusual opportunities to display the talents that made them the world's premiere dancing duo, and Ralph Bellamy as the lawyer forms the third corner of the tumultuous triangle in what is perhaps his finest role to date.

The brilliant supporting cast is headed by Luella Gear, noted Broadway comedienne, and Jack Carson, hailed as the comedy "discovery" of the year, along with Clarence Kolb and Franklin Pangborn. Four of Irving Berlin's catchiest tunes, "The Night Is Filled With Music," "I Used to Be Color Blind," "The Yam" and "Change Partners," are featured in the picture, and all four are in the top rank of popularity in the nation's song lists.

There is a choral feature also by Robert M. Mitchell and his St. Brenden Boys. The dance numbers of "Carefree," following Astaire-Rogers tradition of introducing spectacular routines into their vehicles, are unusually diversified. They include the Golf Dance, a solo novelty by Astaire; the Change Partners routine, a sensational romantic ballroom dance; a dream fantasy number and "The Yam," a colorful but simple ballroom routine, the first dance the two stars have ever presented which can without revision be performed by the general public, and which has caught on widely.

Mark Sandrich directed the Pandro S. Berman production, and the screen play was written by Dudley Nichols, Hagar Wilde, Allan Scott, and Ernest Pagano.

The cast includes Tony Flagg, Fred Astaire, Amanda Cooper, Ginger Rogers, Stephen Arden, Ralph Bellamy, Aunt Cora, Luella Gear, Connors, Jack Carson, Judge Travers, Clarence Kolb, Roland Hunter, Franklin Pangborn, Dr. Powers, Walter Kingsford, Miss Adams, Kay Sutton, and Robert B. Mitchell and his St. Brenden's Boys.

House To House Canvass For Catholic Orphanages Thanksgiving Week.

As for several years past so also this year a house to house collection will be made in every town on the Coast Thanksgiving Week for the two Catholic Orphanages in Natchez.

During 1937 120 orphans were taken care of by the two orphanages of which one is for boys in charge of seven Brothers of the Sacred Heart and the other for girls in charge of seven Sisters of Charity. These orphanages depend for their maintenance entirely on the charity of the people of Mississippi.

The cost of maintenance for 1937 was $14,617.98 or $121.00 per child per year. There are quite a number of non-catholic children cared for in these institutions. Contributions therefore are solicited from non-catholics as well as from Catholics.

In this community the ushers of the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf will go to every home and place of business to ask for donations for the orphanages in the two Catholic orphanages in Natchez. They will carry the proper credentials. Receive them well and do not let them leave you without a substantial donation from you. God will surely bless you if you are generous in giving for the orphanages. —A. J. Gmelch, Pastor.

Funeral of Peter Tudury Thursday Afternoon Was Large

A vast concourse of friends and acquaintances from Mississippi and Louisiana attended last rites for Mr. Peter Tudury, aged 80 years who passed away early Wednesday morning after two days illness, one of the largest funerals seen here in a long time.

Funeral ceremony took place first from the Fahey Funeral Home, the Rev. Leo F. Fahey officiating, thence to the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, where the pastor, the Rev. A. J. Gmelch, conducted the ceremony of the church. From here the cortege continued its way to Cedar Rest cemetery where the Rev. Patrick Moran concluded the ceremony of the Catholic faith and consigning "dust to dust."

Actively connected with the Hancock Bank for nearly forty years, the deceased was well known in circles of that profession. Bank officials locally and from away formed the large number of outsiders that had come to pay tribute to the memory of this beloved character. Added testimony to the esteem in which he was held were the numerous floral offerings, from the spray of the most delicate blossoms to the design carrying the most fragrant flowers, silent in the native beauty but eloquent in expression of hope, love and sympathy.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to relatives and friends, for the kindness and sympathy shown us, during the sudden death of our beloved husband and father Peter Tudury. Special thanks to Father Gmelch, Father Fahey, Father Moran, Dr. Alvah P. Smith and Fahey Funeral Directors. Many thanks for the beautiful floral offerings. All have our everlasting gratitude.

MRS. A. P. SMITH'S LOVELY AFTERNOON TEA AND RECEPTION, 11TH

MRS. (Dr.) A. P. Smith was hostess to one of the larger and delightful social affairs of the immediate season, entertaining many at a formal tea and reception in compliment to Mrs. Chas. W. Clark, of Oklahoma City, who has been visiting here for a fortnight and the recipient of many attentions.

The house was lavishly and tastefully decorated with cut flowers, gorgeous roses in some rooms and other places with giant chrysanthemums.

The decoration motif was symbolic of Armistice Day, and the tri-colors and flag effects were carried out in faithful portrayal, even to the refreshment.

Tea girls were Miss Odille Rauxet, Miss Alice Vivian Evans, Miss Mary Beth Barksdale, Miss Murhl Kergosien.

Mrs. Alice C. Buckley was agreeably surprised on Friday of last week by friends on occasion of her birthday. The recipient of congratulatory messages, gifts—all manifestations of her popularity and the wide esteem in which she is held, marked the happy event. Mrs. Buckley is the widow of Dr. J. C. Buckley and is county dietician for Hancock, supervisor of the federal lunch project.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Vassalli marked their twelfth wedding anniversary Tuesday quietly but happily. Friends aware of the day did not forget them, with lovely flowers included in the remembrances and wishes "for many happy returns of the day."

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott announce the engagement of their daughter Frances Virginia to Mr. Anthony Louis Enterante of Hollywood, California, where Miss Elliott has been visiting friends for the past several months.

The marriage will take place at St. Stephen Church, Napoleon avenue New Orleans, on the morning of Tuesday, December 27, at 9 A. M. 1938. The bride's uncle, the Rev. Russell J. Kirschenheuter, of St. Louis, will be present for the ceremony. The couple will reside in California.

The younger set is keenly anticipating the forthcoming annual Harvest Ball, to be given, Wednesday, November 30, at St. Stanislaus Gym. This quite a swanky and happy affair every fall and this season promises not to be the exception. The king is to be elected in popularity contest and his majesty, in turn, will select a queen of his own personal choice.

Incidentally the decorations of the harvest ball every year are outstanding in beauty and originality, well remembering, in particular, last year's. We wonder what for this year.

Miss Dorothy Tudury arrived home Wednesday night from M. S. C. W. to attend the funeral Thursday afternoon of her grandfather, Mr. Peter Tudury, leaving on an early train Friday morning in order to get back to school and take her place in the dance program for Home-Coming Day Friday night.

Dorothy had to lead the ballet, a duty calling for strength and courage under the circumstances.

"LIFE BEGINS WITH LOVE" AT GULF THEATER, SUNDAY.

In the best traditions of the wacky romantic comedy school, "Life Begins With Love," the Columbia attraction which opens Sunday and Monday at the Gulf Theater, warms the heart and tickles funny bone in one fell swoop. With Jean Parker, Douglas Montgomery and little Edith Fellows doing most of the required clowning, a good time seemed to had by all.

It is the reckless tale of one William Addison Drake III, who, in a deliciously pickled moment, gets up on a soap box and promises the gentry he will divide his fortune among them. This is no laughing matter to ordinary people, who mill around his home the next morning waiting for the millions to be tossed out. Bill's grandfather and fiancée are outraged. Not caring for all the fuss, Bill steals out of the mansion and starts wandering the streets.

A few days later he's pretty hungry when he knocks on the door of a day nursery and asks for a hand-out. Dodie, a saucy miss, calls Carol, the manager, who is just about the nicest thing Bill has ever seen. Carol makes Bill work for his meal—and also, unintentionally, makes his heart cut as handy man in the nursery, and from then on it's anybody's fight.

Miss Parker, Montgomery and Miss Fellows act their roles for all they're worth, which is plenty. Leona Maricle, Lumsden Hare, Audrey Mather and others of the supporting cast also do splendidly. It is by the way, a distinct pleasure to have Miss Parker back with us; she was absent much too long.

Raymond B. McCarey's direction is excellent. Praises also should be sent for the screen play by Thomas Mitchell and Brown Holmes, and for the story by Dorothy Bennett. You will get a kick out of this picture.

Many Attend Funeral For Mrs. Otto Briede, Sr., at New Orleans.

The death of Mrs. Otto Briede, Sr., native of New Orleans, aged 69 years, and chronicled in The Echo last week, was followed by the funeral which took place Friday afternoon from the funeral parlors of Albert E. Briede & Son, 1160 Camp street, New Orleans, and many friends and acquaintances attending, including a representation from Bay St. Louis and Waveland. It was at the latter place the Briede family had made their summer home for a number of years and were well known in Bay-Waveland.

Religious services were held at St. Alphonsus Church and interment at Metairie Cemetery, the remains laid to rest next to that of Mr. Briede who had passed away September 13. He was president of the undertaking firm bearing his name.

Surviving family are a daughter, Mrs. William J. Curry, Sr., and a son, Albert E. Briede, Jr., a grandson, Albert E. Briede, III, and a grandson, grand daughter, Phoebe Briede, and another grandson, William J. Curry, Jr.

A hunger strike in a Georgia college was broken up by the smell of fried chicken. The students said they were being fed turnip greens, cornbread and water.

Pulpwood Specifications.

(For The Sea Coast Echo)

Each of the operating mills in the South, has prepared pulpwood specifications which in general cover the following points:

Size, Length and Diameters: variation in the size of the chippers at ten mills means differing specifications regarding splitting of the larger bolts.

Condition: Free from charred wood, nails, etc., and relatively straight.

Limbs and Knots: Must be trimmed flush.

Wood must be from sound, live trees.

Ends: Must be sawed, not chopped.

The specifications are usually printed on small cards which may readily be carried in a wallet. They are furnished to the contractors, wood buyers, and to woodland owners who may desire to sell direct to the mill.

Before starting any pulpwood cutting it will be wise to check the specifications of the mill to which the wood will be sold in order to avoid losses as the specifications vary among mills.

The specifications may also designate that wood must be shipped or delivered within a specified time after cutting. Sticks with turpentine faces if clean and free of charred wood or worm holes are taken by most mills.

If wood is shipped to the mill and it does not meet specifications it may be rejected or else the shipper is "docked"—a certain amount for not complying with the specifications.

The Southern sulphate or kraft mills in the past have confined their pulpwood purchases to pine. Some of the newer mills may be able to use such hardwoods as tulip, poplar, sweet gum, black gum, tupelo gum and magnolia, all being considered hardwoods. One of the mills in Mississippi uses 11 per cent pulpwood market for oak, hickory, dogwood, or persimmon as these hardwoods cannot be readily pulped.

Former Lessee Of The Old Bay View Villa Dies at N. O.

Mrs. Charles L. Platz, the former Marie Despommer, died at her home at 1019 Constantine street, New Orleans, Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Platz was well known to the older population of Bay St. Louis as lessee and operator during the nineties of "Bay View," the old Carroll villa, which later became the Lorch property for over 30 years.

Mrs. Platz was a sister of Miss Myrtle Despommer and of the late Victor Despommer and was well and widely known. She was a native of New Orleans, aged 88 years.

WPA Library Lights

Mrs. Otis Chamberlain of New Orleans gave a reading of a recent popular Broadway play Wednesday afternoon of last week for the Book of the Hour Club. A large crowd was present and enjoyed her delightfully charming portrayal of the amusing satirical play.

November 13-20 is National Book Week, and Miss Louise Crawford, librarian, has on exhibition in Mauffray's window a miniature library and many attractive children's books.
